

Northern Wild Sheep and Goat Council

We would like to thank our many sponsors for their generous contributions and support. Their willingness to stick with us in the face of the challenges with the Covid pandemic that required the holding of the first virtual symposium in the history of the Northern Wild Sheep and Goat Council is greatly appreciated. We in turn can show our appreciation through our patronage and thanks.

